STATEMENT OF ADDITIONAL GROUND FOR REVIEW

I am Valentin Sandoval, appellant in the above-referenced matter.

These are my additional grounds for review:

1. My Grant County attorney, Robert Schiffner, knew that I was not an American citizen and that I was a Permanent Resident.
2. My attorney assured me that I would not be deported or put into Immigration Court by pleading guilty to the charge of Rape in the Third Degree in Grant County Superior Court.
3. My attorney should have known that by pleading to that charge that I would be put into removal proceedings.
4. I trusted my attorney to know that what he was telling me was the truth.
5. My attorney should have consulted with an immigration attorney if he was not sure about what would happen if I pleaded guilty to Rape in the Third Degree.
6. I would not have pleaded guilty to Rape in the Third Degree if I had known that this would happen to me.

I swear, under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of Washington that the foregoing is true and correct to the best of my knowledge.

Signed this 21st day of August, 2007 at Moses Lake, Washington.
